Dear Parents/Guardians

Thank you for your enquiry regarding the admission of your son to Paul Roos Gymnasium. We trust that this prospectus will contain sufficient information to allow you to make the correct decision with regard to your son's future school career. We are grateful to be able to say that the school (and Stellenbosch as a whole) offers excellent teaching, sport and cultural facilities. In addition, the subject choice of the school is extensive and should be able to cover the fields of interest of the vast majority of boys. Excellent qualifications and the ability to apply the teaching techniques of the latest educational research in the class room, are only two of the characteristics of the staff. The opportunities offered to your son to develop into a balanced, self-disciplined and self-reliant person are available at Paul Roos Gymnasium in a very particular way.

In cases where admission is required for Grade 8 as from the beginning of 2025, the closing date is 12 April 2024. Application is done on the website of the WCED as from 11 March 2024. (<https://wcedonline.westerncape.gov.za/>).

In cases where admission is required for Grades 9 - 12 as from the beginning of 2025, applications open on 9 July 2024 and close on 16 August 2024. Application is done via the school.

In order for us to consider the application for your son's admission to the school, the application must be done in accordance with the instructions on the website of the Department of Education.

We look forward to receiving your application.

PRG greetings

André van Staden
RECTOR

AIMS OF PAUL ROOS GYMNASIUM

1. Paul Roos Gymnasium supports the principles of Christian Education, while respecting the religious convictions of each parent and learner.
2. The primary function of Paul Roos Gymnasium is the systematic provision of knowledge and skills, and to provide opportunities for each child to develop the ability to think independently.
3. Our success depends to a large extent on the foundation laid by parents at home. It is therefore our purpose:
 - 3.1 to make provision for participation and co-responsibility of parents in the education of their sons;
 - 3.2 to support parents in educating their sons.
4. Paul Roos Gymnasium is an integral part of the community of Stellenbosch. It is therefore the aim of the school:
 - 4.1 to inform the community of the opportunities offered by the school and to utilise the existing knowledge and skills of the community;
 - 4.2 to encourage learners to serve the community.
5. A well-balanced education is dependent on the quality of teaching. Therefore Paul Roos Gymnasium has as its further aims:
 - 5.1 to appoint and retain quality educators who strive to stay current and invest in self-development to optimise each teaching opportunity.

DIE SKOOLIED

Verhef die roem van onse skool
Ons hou deur ons land hom hoog
En waar ons gaan en waar ons staan
Ons vleg steeds aan sy ereboog
Hef aan, hef aan, in roem en sang
Ons werk en glorie sy belang
Semper, Semper Splendidior!
Semper Splendidior!

SCHOOL SONG

Salute the name of our famous school
Uphold it country wide
And through ev'ry action brave and true
We carve this name with pride
Sing out, sing out aloud and let its fame be known
We're proud to claim it as our own
Semper, Semper Splendidior!
Semper Splendidior!

PAUL ROOS GYMNASIUM: A HISTORY

On 29 January 1864 the Rev. J.H. Neethling of the Stellenbosch Dutch Reformed church writes to Dr Langham Dale, Superintendent General of Education of the Cape:

"As a piece of news that will interest you, I may state that yesterday (28 January 1864) 30 inhabitants of this district have decided to erect a gymnasium or Latin School. They have guaranteed 465 pounds (R930) per annum, chosen a Board of Directors of five persons to carry out the resolutions with all possible speed and decided that as soon as possible a preparatory school or infant department shall be established."

SCHOOL RULES

Code of honour

As a true Paul Rooser, I declare that I honour the noble values and traditions of my school. I am proud of my school and my appearance, I respect others and conduct myself as a true gentleman.

I honour my parents, teachers and other authority figures unconditionally so that I can grow in obedience.

Relationships are important to me and I add value by encouraging others, knowing that I form a daily part of Paul Roos history.

I live with passion, integrity and humility.

I reject passivity, mediocrity and self-centredness and I accept responsibility for my role as cultivator.

I choose to do what is right and I strive for excellence in all areas...

PAUL ROOS GYMNASIUM
CONDE OF CONDUCT

The code of conduct for Paul Roos Gymnasium is based on pride in the school, mutual respect and gentlemanship.

1. Any transgression that is regarded as a criminal offence in terms of the South African law, as well as any transgression that is regarded as an act of misconduct in terms of the South African Schools Act, will be regarded as a transgression of this code of conduct.
2. This code of conduct is supplemented by the rules, arrangements, policy documents and regulations of the school.
3. Learners may not bring discredit to the name of their school in any way.
4. The personal appearance and dress of learners must comply with the requirements as set by the school community.
5. Learners must attend school for the full academic day.

6. Learners are required to obey all the reasonable instructions of the staff.
7. No weapons, implements or materials which can cause bodily harm may be in the possession of learners at school, while under the supervision of the school or while they are in school uniform.
8. Learners may not have in their possession, nor use, cigarettes or any tobacco products, e-cigarettes, other drugs, alcoholic beverages or objectionable printed or recorded matter or objects, when on the school's premises, when in school uniform or when under the supervision of the school.
9. School property, or the property of others, may not be taken, damaged or defaced (vandalised).
10. Learners must participate in the educational programme prescribed by the education department, unless exemption has been granted by the department.

SCHOOL RULES

1. GENERAL RULES

- 1.1 Learners shall be good ambassadors of the school, and shall conduct themselves in accordance with the school's codes of conduct and honour at all times.
- 1.2 While wearing the school uniform, or any part thereof that is sufficient to establish a link with the school in the public eye, or while representing the school, either directly or indirectly, as participants, supporters, assistants and spectators or otherwise, learners shall refrain from any conduct that could bring the school, staff or their fellow learners into disrepute.

When establishing a link with the school via any social media platform, either directly or indirectly, learners shall refrain from any conduct that could bring the school, staff or their fellow learners into disrepute.
- 1.3 In their interaction with the rector, educators and other staff of the school, learners shall be courteous and respectful at all times and shall refrain from any action that constitutes disrespectfulness or rebelliousness.
- 1.4 In their interaction with one another, learners shall practise self-restraint as far as possible, and shall display mutual respect and tolerance. In particular, learners shall refrain from any action aimed at harming, or that could possibly cause harm to, any other learner's physical, spiritual and moral well-being. Any sexual or improper physical contact between learners on school grounds, or in any other place where they could be identified as learners of the school, is strictly prohibited.
- 1.5 A school educator shall have the same rights as a parent with regard to controlling and disciplining the learner according to the code of conduct, both during such learner's school attendance as well as at any school activity.

- 1.6 Learners may not eat or drink in the classroom, school hall or library. The chewing of gum during school activities is prohibited. A teacher may give a learner permission to drink water if required.
- 1.7 The use of cell phones during school activities is strictly prohibited. The cell phone policy will be strictly adhered to.
- 1.8 The smoking, possession and/or use of tobacco products, e-cigarettes, liquor, other alcoholic substances or drugs or the possession /distribution of pornographic material during any school activity, or when learners are dressed in school uniform, is strictly prohibited. Please be advised that the school is a drug-, alcohol- and fire-arm free area.
- 1.9 In case of a reasonable suspicion that learners have violated this code of conduct or the laws of the country, the school rector or an educator is entitled to search such learners and/or the property in their possession for any dangerous weapons, guns, drugs or other harmful and dangerous substances, stolen goods or pornographic material that the learners may have brought onto the school grounds. Throughout, learners' dignity will be respected, and therefore, the search will be conducted in private, by persons of the same sex, and in the presence of another person. The search process and outcome must be recorded.
- 1.10 Any conduct that unfairly prejudices the administration, discipline or efficiency of the school shall be regarded as a violation of this code of conduct.
- 1.11 A conviction of a criminal offence in a court of law shall be regarded as a violation of this code of conduct.
- 1.12 Transgressions that may lead to suspension and/or expulsion include but are not limited to:
 - conduct that poses a threat to others' safety and infringes upon others' rights;
 - possessing, threatening with or using dangerous weapons;
 - the possession, use, trading or any visible sign of narcotic or unauthorised drugs, alcohol and intoxicating substances of any nature;
 - fighting, assault or abuse;
 - indecent behaviour or swearing;
 - adopting or assuming a false identity;
 - any form of hate speech, sexism or racism or any other anti-social behaviour;
 - theft, or the possession of stolen goods, including the theft or possession of test or examination papers before such test or examination has been conducted;
 - unlawful conduct towards and/or vandalising, destroying or damaging school property, which includes graffiti;
 - disrespectfulness, offensive behaviour and verbal abuse aimed at educators or other school staff or learners;
 - repeated violations of school rules or this code of conduct;
 - criminal and oppressive behaviour, such as rape and gender-based harassment;
 - victimisation, bullying and intimidation of other learners;
 - the transgression of examination rules; and
 - intentionally and knowingly providing false information, or forging documents, in order to obtain an unfair advantage.

2. CLASS RULES

- 2.1 The class educator shall formulate class rules upon the adoption of this code of conduct, and at the beginning of each ensuing school year, after having consulted the learners in the class as well as their parents. (Generic class rules included)
- 2.2 The class rules must be compiled in writing and –
 - 2.2.1 immediately be submitted to the rector and school governing body;
 - 2.2.2 be displayed in a legible format in a prominent spot in the class room; and
 - 2.2.3 be made available to all learners and their parents.
- 2.3 Learners are expected to comply fully and promptly with the class rules as well as any verbal instruction given by the class educator or any staff member that is reasonably essential to give effect to this code of conduct and/or for the sound and professional management of the school.
- 2.4 Any violation of the class rules shall be regarded as a violation of this code of conduct and school rules.

3. RULES WITH REGARD TO APPEARANCE

- 3.1 With head and shoulders held upright, the longest strand of hair at the back of the head may not touch the collar.
- 3.2 Hair must taper gradually towards the neck - a mild step in the hair is, however, acceptable but the so-called “mushroom, mullet or mohawk styles”, are not allowed. The shape of the hair style must follow the natural curvature of the head. The length of the hair on the side and the back of the head must be the same length.
- 3.3 If hair is combed down straight, it may not touch the ears.
- 3.4 Side burns may not reach below the hole in the earlobe. Learners must be cleanly shaven.
- 3.5 If the fringe is combed forward, it may not touch the eyebrows.
- 3.6 No dyeing / colouring of hair is allowed. Hair gel or mousse is allowed to control difficult hair.
- 3.7 If the hair is brush cut, the following minimum conditions apply: no 1 comb for matrices and no 2 for the rest of the school.
- 3.8 No braiding of hair is allowed.
- 3.9 The general impression must be one of neatness and the hair style must not attract unnecessary attention.

4. SPORTS AND EXTRA-CURRICULAR ACTIVITIES

The official sports policy of the school is considered an addendum to these rules. Each learner is required to participate in a summer and a winter activity. Participation is also compulsory during examinations.

- 4.1 Participants in sports and extra-curricular activities
- 4.1.1 Learners who are selected to represent the school as participants in any sports or other extra-curricular activities must be dressed in the sportswear, school wear or other prescribed clothing as determined by the educator responsible for the activity concerned, both during and after participation in such activity.
- 4.1.2 All learners who participate in the aforementioned activities shall be loyal to the school and fellow participants. In particular, participants must report promptly and on time at the venue of the activity or the venue from where participants depart to the activity. Learners who have been selected to represent the school in an activity may only be excused from attendance if an apology is handed to the relevant educator.
- 4.1.3 Learners who represent the school at sports activities will at all times be courteous towards, and comply with the rulings, prescripts and instructions of:
- 4.1.3.1 the sports head and the educator involved in the relevant sports code;
- 4.1.3.2 the referee or adjudicator with regard to the relevant activity; and
- 4.1.3.3 the team captain.
- 4.1.4 Although it is assumed that learners who participate in sports activities shall do so with commitment and dedication, such learners are expected also to practise self-restraint and self-discipline. In particular, no learner may display bad sportsmanship, use foul or offensive language, get involved in fights or incidents, or engage in any foul or improper play.
- 4.2 Spectators and supporters at sports and other extra-curricular activities
- 4.2.1 Apart from their duty to comply with the provisions of this code of conduct, all learners attending any school activity as spectators or supporters shall also refrain from any disruptive, improper, rebellious, unnecessarily inciting or indecent behaviour. In particular, learners may not respond negatively to any ruling by an adjudicator or referee.
- 4.2.2 Learners who attend any school activity as spectators or supporters shall abide by and obey any instructions and directives they receive prior to, during and after the activity concerned from the rector, any educator, member of the Student Council /Representative Council of Learners (RCL), other school leaders, or parents appointed by the rector to assist with the transport, supervision or control of learners who need to be transported to and from the activity concerned, or who attend the activity.
- 4.3 The abovementioned rules equally apply to any participation in any extra-curricular activity apart from sports activities, except cases on which the rules obviously have no bearing.

5. SCHOOL PROPERTY

- 5.1 'School property' includes the following:
- 5.1.1 The grounds and buildings occupied by the school, as well as any permanent addition to such grounds and buildings.
 - 5.1.2 All other property, including equipment, books, stock, motor vehicles and the like that the school owns, rents or stores, or with regard to which the school could be held legally liable in case of any damage or loss.
- 5.2 As the school has been developed and erected for the use of all learners who attend it, all learners are obligated to do everything in their power to protect the school's property in order for it to be utilised to the benefit of all current and future learners of the school.
- 5.3 No learner may remove any school property from the school grounds without the prior consent of the rector or an educator of the school.
- 5.4 Learners may not handle, damage, vandalise, deface or destroy any property of the staff of the school, fellow learners, visitors to the school, or members of the public. This rule applies to property on the school grounds, in the immediate vicinity of the school, at or near the venue of any school activity, as well as any vehicle with which learners are transported, and the property contained therein.
- 5.5 Any learner who deliberately misuses, damages or vandalises any school property shall replace or pay for such property. Destruction of and/or damage to property is a criminal offence.

6. THE REPRESENTATIVE COUNCIL OF LEARNERS (RCL) AND SCHOOL LEADERS

- 6.1 The RCL, PRD and school leaders, in conjunction with the staff of the school, are responsible for general school discipline.
- 6.2 RCL members, PRD and other school leaders shall bring transgressing learners to the staff of the school, where after line functions will be followed.
- 6.3 All learners shall obey any reasonable instruction from a member of the RCL, PRD or another school leader, and shall support and co-operate with the RCL, PRD and other school leaders in properly executing their duties.

7. SCHOOL WORK AND HOMEWORK

- 7.1 There shall be an orderly atmosphere in the class room at all times. Learners may not disrupt teaching.
- 7.2 Learners must promptly carry out instructions in class.
- 7.3 All learners must have and maintain any homework book/electronic diary as may be required by the rector or class educator.
- 7.4 All learners must do their prescribed homework and promptly return it to the relevant educator by the due date. Failure to comply with this rule shall be excused only if, on the day on which the homework was to be completed, the learner hands to the educator a written note from his/her parents with an acceptable excuse for such failure.

- 7.5 All learners must do their prescribed homework enthusiastically, diligently and with dedication in order to develop a consistent work ethic.
- 7.6 Learners are obligated to catch up as soon as possible on any work that they have missed. It is the learner's responsibility to find out what work he has missed.
- 7.7 Learners shall move swiftly in single file from one class to the next, keeping to the left of the corridors. Learners may not be late for the next class, if they visited the bathrooms in between lessons.

8. TESTS AND EXAMINATIONS

- 8.1 All learners are obligated to abide by the tests and examinations that educators may require. Failure to comply with this rule shall be excused in exceptional cases only, provided that the parents of the learner concerned supply the rector with a full and acceptable written explanation at the earliest possible opportunity.
- 8.2 Learners shall refrain from any form of dishonesty when tests and examinations are conducted.
- 8.3 Learners who were absent for a test or examination, must hand in a valid medical certificate to Room 14, grade head and subject teacher as soon as possible. Failure to hand in a medical certificate will be regarded as absent without a valid reason and receive zero for the test/examination. No tests/examinations will be written at a later stage.

9. MOTOR VEHICLES AND MOTORCYCLES

- 9.1 Learners may not bring motor vehicles or motorcycles onto the school grounds, unless he has the prior written consent of the rector or another staff member duly nominated by the rector, and unless he promptly complies with any conditions imposed together with the aforementioned consent. If a learner does not have the necessary consent when asked to present such by any member of the staff, governing body, RCL, or a school leader, it will be assumed that he does not have such consent, until proved otherwise.
- 9.2 The driving of a motor vehicle or motorcycle by a learner in a way that poses a risk or possible harm to other learners on the school grounds, or other learners and members of the public in the immediate vicinity of the school grounds, is strictly prohibited.
- 9.3 Learners shall adhere to traffic rules on and around the school grounds.
- 9.4 All motor vehicles, motorcycles and bicycles are parked at own risk on and around the school grounds. Permission is granted to matrics to park a vehicle on the premises, after they have applied for a disk from the assistant grade head.

10. HOSTEL RULES

The rules, regulations and policy documents of the hostel are regarded as an addendum to these rules.

11. PUNCTUALITY

Learners are expected to arrive on the appointed time at the beginning of the school day and the start of any other school activity. When learners arrive late, they must provide a written apology from their parents. Learners who arrive late must first report to Room 14 before proceeding to their particular class.

12. ABSENCE FROM SCHOOL

12.1 Learners may be absent from school in exceptional cases only, and only with the written consent of the rector, or his representative if the rector is not available.

12.2 When any learner is absent from school without an acceptable excuse, it shall be regarded as truancy, which is strictly prohibited.

12.3 Learners who are absent from school for one to three consecutive days must submit a written explanation by their parents upon their return to school. Absence for more than three consecutive days shall be excused only if a certificate from a registered medical practitioner is submitted, except in the case of death or trauma in the learner's family, or another reason approved by the rector.

13. ENVIRONMENT

13.1 Learners have the right to a safe environment and school that are conducive to education.

13.2 Learners may not litter on school grounds or in school buildings.

13.3 Learners who attend any school activity as spectators or supporters are expected to leave the grounds they have occupied in a neat and clean condition, and must ensure that all litter is picked up and placed in garbage bins.

13.4 Learners must leave rest rooms in a clean condition.

13.5 Any action or failure by learners that constitutes or could constitute a health risk to other learners must be avoided.

13.6 The application of slogans (graffiti), stickers, posters and the like to any surface at the school is strictly prohibited, unless it is done with the rector's consent.

13.7 Learners shall comply with any reasonable instruction from the rector, any educator, RCL member or another school leader with regard to maintaining a clean and hygienic school environment.

13.8 Learners may not be in possession of any form of fireworks in the buildings or on the school grounds.

14. CELL PHONES

Bringing a cellular phone to the school is strongly discouraged. When a cellular phone is brought to school in an emergency, the following will apply:

14.1 Cell phones/ electronic devices may be used during academic periods for educational purposes with the explicit permission and under the supervision of the educator in charge during that period.

- 14.2 If the learner uses the device without the teacher's permission, the phone (handset and SIM card) will be confiscated and locked away in a safe place for a period of ONE week, after which the learner may collect it. A document of proof will be issued to him.
- 14.3 Cell phones must be on silent mode throughout the school day. If a phone is not on silent, a warning will be given by the teacher. A second time, it will be confiscated for one week.
- 14.4 There will be no correspondence or discussions with learners or parents in this regard;
- 14.5 No cell phone theft will be investigated by the school.
- 14.6 No learner may have a cell phone in his possession during exams or tests. This will be treated as an exam irregularity and may also, in some cases, be viewed as dishonesty during an exam.

15. BULLYING

- 15.1 The official bullying policy of the school serves as an addendum to these rules.
- 15.2 Learners may not sexually or in any other way, harass, threaten, bully, fight with tease or do an injustice to other learners, educators or members of the school community in any material, physical, emotional or cyber manner.

16. DRUGS

The official drug policy of the school serves as an addendum to these rules.

17. SUPPLEMENTS

The official supplements policy of the school serves as an addendum to these rules.

18. SPORT POLICY

The official sport policy of the school serves as an addendum to these rules.

19. EXEMPTION FROM PROVISIONS OF THE CODE OF CONDUCT

- 19.1 Learners may submit a written application to the governing body for total or partial exemption from one or more of the items contained in the code of conduct based on cultural, religious or medical grounds.
- 19.2 Such application must include full reasons as well as supporting evidence. Therefore, the onus of proof lies with the learner to substantiate the application for exemption.
- 19.3 Applications for exemption will be considered at the start of the school year only, unless the applicant can prove that the matter is urgent or necessitated by a change in circumstances.
- 19.4 In considering an application for exemption, the governing body shall be entitled to obtain any information that it deems necessary for a fair adjudication of the application.

- 19.5 The governing body shall consider the application for exemption with the necessary seriousness and responsibility, within the framework of the Constitution and court judgements, and will inform the learner of its decision in writing.
